Tasty Teas for every Taste

Don't Boil Tea

The right way to make tea is as follows:

Never use a metal teapot—use the McCormick Teapot—or, if one isn't available, use an earthenware pot. Rinse the pot with boiling water.

Use a teaspoonful of tea for each cup and pour boiling water over the tea leaves. Steep from 3 to 8 minutes—then pour into another receptacle and serve.

Never boil tea. Boiling releases the bitter principle known as tannin.

Use BANQUET TEA—it is sold in convenient packages in Pounds, Halves and Quarters.

When My Baby Had Fever

THE first time my baby had fever, I was frantic with fear. It seemed hours before the doctor came.

But he only smiled.

"You needn't worry," he said. "Pretty soon that first tooth will be through and he'll be all right. We'll just make things easier for him, though, by giving him Nestlé's Milk Food."

That was how I learned that Nestlé's is better for baby's stomach than other kinds of milk. The doctor told me it was made out of the pure milk modified with just the right amount of sugar and cereal, and all changed to a fluffy powder—pure, clean, safe.

Now I know the Nestlé Company wants your baby like mine to be helped when those teeth come, so if you will fill out and send them the coupon below, they will send you free enough Nestlé's for twelve feedings and a Mother's Book on how to keep babies well and strong.

Nestlé's is pure milk in powder form that is already modified and does not require the further addition of milk. Always pure and safe, always uniform, and free from the dangers of home modification, Nestlé's has stood the test of three generations and has today the largest sale of any baby food in the world.

FREE! Enough Nestlé's for 12 feedings. Send the coupon!

ECONOMY CAPE OF BLACK SATIN

BY ANNE RITTENHOUSE.

You can't get away from the fashion for capes, even if you do not care for them.

They are as thick as destroyers on an airplane route from Newfoundland to the Azores. The choice to make is between capes, not between a coat and a cape. You may be extravagant and buy half a dozen; you may take a simple frock and throw over it a cape made of two or three contrasting shades of tulle bordered with ostrich feathers or sable. Surely, that is a bit of extravagance. And yet there are women who indulge in it this first summer of peace.

Also Demure Ones.

You may have a dark brown or blue cloth cape lined with foulard, with straps that go around the waist and over the shoulders, and use it as a comfortable traveling companion or as a wrap to keep off the dust of the city or the chill of an evening.

Between these two, one standing for economy and one for extravagance, there are agreeable compromises. If one does not wish to indulge in a garden of capes, a little thought, some ingenuity and good judgment will result in a cape that serves for all occasions and does not make you conspicuous at any time. Every woman knows how hard it is to get a garment that will appear well on different occasions.

It is said that in Paris women who could not afford two evening gowns wore their decollete, sleeveless frocks to the matinee.

Once upon a time there was a large segment of American women who did practically the same thing. They wore their evening gowns in the afternoon, with tulle guimpes. But that was in the days of real 5 o'clock parties, when the shades were lowered, when music was served, when there was music and dancing, ice cream and cake, and when women tried to look their loveliest.

The Cape of Economy.

Maybe those days will come back, if the world keeps shifting around and women feel that things are too uncertain for them to spend much money, but whether they come or not, there are garments that combine qualities which make them quite permissible and acceptable for different occasions.

One can get hold of a cape that serves for any afternoon and does its duty agreeably and with amiability in the evening.

Such a costume is shown in the sketch. The woman who wears it knows it is a success.

It is of black satin, with a cape, immense hip drapery, narrow hem and a broad roll collar. The cape is lined with black chiffon, except where the drapery opens into wide pockets at the hips; silver cloth is placed there.

The edge of the cape, which is Victorian in outline, is trimmed with silver-gray ostrich feathers. This is an expensive touch, but there are

ECONOMY CAPE WHICH SERVES FOR AFTERNOON AND EVENING. IT IS OF BLACK SATIN TRIMMED WITH WHITE OSTRICH. THERE IS WIDE DRAPERY AT THE HIPS, AND A TIGHT HEM. IT IS LINED WITH SILVER CLOTH.

Several other kinds of trimming that would serve as well. Every family has its cache of ostrich feathers saved for several generations, and sometimes the most elaborate-looking ornamentation is merely the result of pilfering from this family cache.

SOLDIERS SELL DECORATIONS.

French and American Crosses Are Obtainable at Five Dollars.

NEW YORK, July 16.—American distinguished service crosses and French war crosses won by American soldiers on the battlefields of France at risk of their lives are obtainable in New York pawnshops for the insignificant sum of $5. Several pawnshop proprietors, who displayed the gayly ribboned emblems of heroism in their dingy shops explained that they had been sold outright by soldiers who felt the pangs of hunger, but were too proud to beg. They were sold outright because their "pawny" value was insufficient to purchase a square meal.

Lieut. Col. Roosevelt a Candidate.

MINNEAPOLIS, N. Y., July 16.—Without announcing the platform upon which he will go before the people of Nassau county as a candidate for the state assembly, Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt has accepted the republican nomination in a brief speech to the republican town committee of North Hempstead and Oyster Bay. In his speech Lieut. Col. Roosevelt pledged himself to "work for the district's best interests at all times."

Fresh collars and cuffs in half an hour!

How to launder them

GLEAMING satin collars and cuffs! Delicate lace guimpes! Your very daintiest accessories you can wash in delicate Lux suds—and they will come out just like new.

There is nothing else like Lux. Lux comes in delicate white flakes—pure and transparent. They dissolve instantly in hot water. You whisk them into the richest, sudsiest lather that loosens all the dirt—leaves the finest fabric clean and new—not a color dimmed, not a fibre broken or weakened in any way.

Lux won't hurt anything pure water alone won't injure.

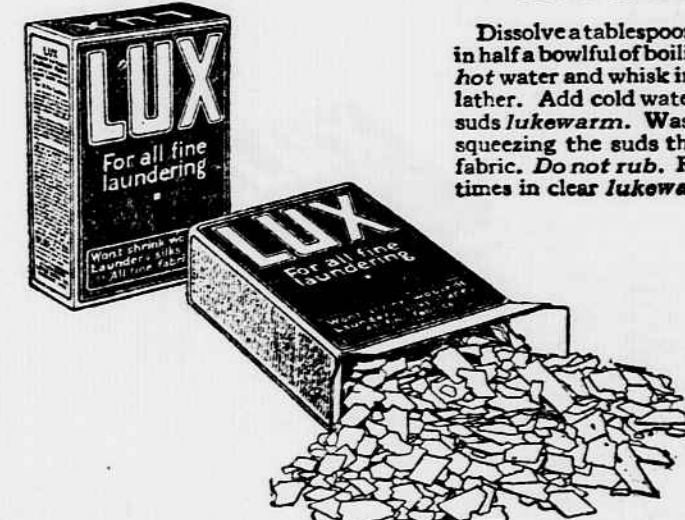

Your grocer, druggist or department store has Lux.—Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

How to wash silks, satins, Georgettes

Dissolve a tablespoonful of Lux in half a bowlful of boiling or very hot water and whisk into a thick lather. Add cold water to make suds lukewarm. Wash quickly, squeezing the suds through the fabric. Do not rub. Rinse three times in clear lukewarm water.

Squeeze the water out. Do not twist. Roll in a towel. When nearly dry, press with a warm iron, never a hot one. White organdies, laces, etc.—Wash as above, but in hot suds. Rinse in hot water. Dry in the sun.

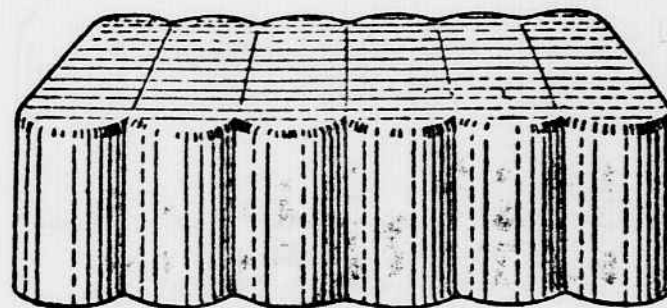

THERE IS NOTHING ELSE LIKE LUX

50c Molds Free

Get a Full Set if You Use Jiffy-Jell

Pint Mold—Style—D
For a Jiffy-Jell Salad or Meat Loaf

Individual Molds
A Set of Six for Jiffy-Jell Real-Fruit Desserts

Jiffy-Jell is for salads as well as for desserts. And we offer this 50-cent aluminum mold for use in making salads.

Use Lime Jiffy-Jell for salads. Each package contains a bottle of lime-fruit essence, sealed. Added to Jiffy-Jell it makes a tart, green salad jelly.

Some serve it with the salad as a zestful garnish. Some mix the salad into the jelly while cooling. With cooked or uncooked vegetables this makes a salad loaf.

A meat loaf is made by mixing in meat scraps. This gives you meat in aspic—an ideal summer cold dish.

We Supply the Mold

Pint Mold, Style D, serves a full package of Lime Jiffy-Jell with the salad or meat mixed in. It makes a flat loaf with six indentations to mark six individual servings.

Send us five end labels from Jiffy-Jell packages—the end labels naming the flavor—and we'll send you this aluminum mold.

Mint Jiffy-Jell contains a vial of mint. It makes a garnish jelly, far better than mint sauce, to serve with cold meats or roast lamb.

This is a 60-cent gift. These aluminum molds come in sets of six, assorted styles, valued at 10 cents each.

Send us five end labels from Jiffy-Jell packages—the end labels naming the flavor—and we will send the entire set.

Loganberry and Pineapple are two dessert flavors which we particularly want you to try. They are flavors which must be sealed to keep. So they were impossible in old-style gelatine desserts.

In Jiffy-Jell the fruit-juice essence comes in liquid form, in vials. So with all fruit flavors. There is a wealth of the real-fruit flavor, condensed from the fruit itself.

Include Loganberry, Pineapple, Lime and Mint in your purchase of Jiffy-Jell. Learn the delights of these liquid flavors. They have won millions of housewives to Jiffy-Jell.

Pint Dessert Molds Free

At the bottom we picture two aluminum pint molds. Each serves a full package of Jiffy-Jell. They are valued at 30 cents each.

Send us five end labels from Jiffy-Jell packages—the end labels naming the flavor—and we will send either mold you want. Or, if you prefer, send a grocer's sales slip showing a 5-package purchase.

Send them to us with the coupon below, stating the molds you want. Cut out the entire offer so you won't forget.
